The 12th Annual Cancer and Primary Care Research International Network (Ca-PRI) Conference.

Conference Theme: "Cancer Inequities at Home and Abroad in the Age of Migration: Roles for Primary Care"

May 21-23, 2019

The Cancer and Primary Care Research International Network (Ca-PRI) is a multidisciplinary network for researchers in primary cancer care and related areas. The goal of Ca-PRI is to promote greater international collaboration in primary care and cancer research. Ca-PRI welcomes researchers from all disciplines

The 2019 conference will be hosted by the University of Toronto's Department of Family and Community Medicine (DFCM) in beautiful Toronto, Canada from May 21 - 23, 2019 on the University of Toronto Campus. This is a unique opportunity for primary cancer care researchers to meet with others to promote greater international collaboration in primary care and cancer research.

The 2019 conference will feature keynote speakers, workshops and other unique highlights, including a welcome reception at the Toronto Aquarium, where presenters will face off in a "Shark Tank".
